

Graphic Content

Guest Artist
Gina Rinaldi-Silvestro is an Akzentz Internationally Certified Educator (I.C.E.) and has been a nail tech for more than 19 years. She handles a wide array of mediums, but focuses on gel.

Alexander McQueen

Graphic designs hit an optic nerve this season with digitally rendered prints that flip, invert, mirror and swirl for fashion that conjures up dazzling kaleidoscopic beauty. At Nathan Jenden, we discover a dizzying pattern of florals on a slim-cut skirt suit, while under-the-sea-inspired markings duplicate beautifully on Proenza Schouler's surfer-chic tank dress. The Versace girl takes her geometric prints served up on clear vinyl, while Alexander McQueen's slightly edgier fashionista revels in repeated reptilian patterns on an armor-like dress.

Seeking your inner "graphics" artist? Try duplicating an intricate design using a striper. Or craft gels that combine several swirling hues and top them with coordinating mylar flakes and foil.

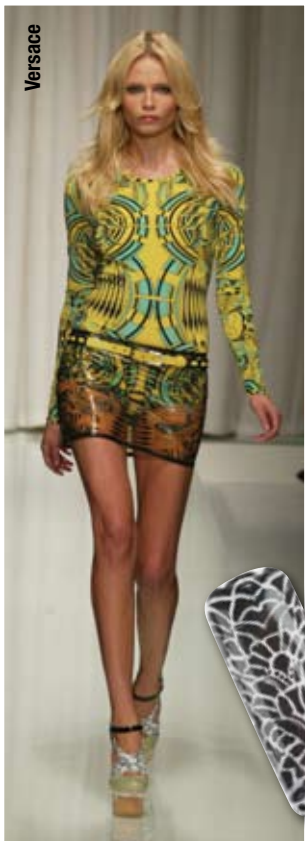

Alexander McQueen

Mary Katrantzou

Versace

Proenza Schouler

Hiroko Koshino

Nathan Jenden

FASHION PHOTOS: ANDREA ANGELESCU; NAIL ART PHOTOS: HANNAH ROSS

* Reproduced with permission from Nailpro magazine for limited distribution. © 2010 by Creative Age Publications. No part of this article can be altered, changed, or reused in any way without the express consent of the publisher.